

Spiritual Quotient

WITH LYNN HARE

Take your next step with clarity.

Life is full of change. And when you endure unexpected or overwhelming transitions, it's easy to feel lost in it all. But no matter what passage of life you find yourself in, you can team up with your guide, the Holy Spirit, to navigate transition using the best tool God has given you—your Spiritual Quotient. With Holy Spirit wisdom and solid biblical counsel, Lynn Hare shows you the path to clarity and peace in taking the next step in any transition that comes your way.

*No matter how your life is changing,
you can move forward . . .*

Empowered.

Get unstuck from your current circumstances. Embrace the power God has given you to move forward. And discover the wisdom to know when and how to change direction

Purposeful.

Change shouldn't mean confusion. Gain clarity on your Holy Spirit purpose. Uncover Scripture that speaks to your destiny. Hear God's voice through the noise so you can feel confident in his plan for you.

Open to Possibilities.

Get free from past injustices. Restore your spiritual, emotional and mental energy. Become a “possibilitarian” – a person who activates new possibilities by facing the future with hope-filled expectation.

“Lynn has a way to draw everybody in the room together. I highly recommend this workshop to anybody looking to work smoothly through a transition ...”
